This week's Clarity Glasses go to Dave Lucero. Here is what Juan Garcilazo shared with Mr. Lucero: All of your hard work does not go unrecognized. Thank you for everything you do for our students. ~ Juan February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month. Secondary PBIS Coordinator, Tasha Rivera, presents a lesson during lunch to raise awareness of healthy relationships and teen dating abuse.

A huge thank you to everyone who supported our ASB and Leadership by purchasing these handmade candy bouquets!

Panther Podcast !

We've chosen one student from each grade to shed light on the significance of attendance. Their stories embody resilience, determination, and the transformative power of showing up. Let their voices inspire us all to prioritize attendance as a cornerstone of success.

PANTHER

LIBRARY

Jimena's book recommendation
for the week:

Solito: A Memoir By Javier Zamora

DID YOU KNOW?...

Many schools design the physical spaces in their libraries so they closely resemble a comfortable room at home. This homeliness aspect is particularly important for children who have difficult home lives as it gives them a sense of belonging and safety at school.

Congratulations to our graduates! We had a total of 6
Panthers graduate this week!

provide.

What they need
When they need it
Even When they don't know they need it
And How they need it!

We all have a story.

WE ARE ALTED!

Warning: We are small but MIGHTY!
