Travels to LA

Our students were able to visit the Holocaust Museum of Los Angeles, where they engaged with exhibits and learned about the profound impact of this historical event.

In addition to this meaningful visit, our students also had the chance to attend The Grove, where they immersed themselves in a vibrant atmosphere of culture and community.

14 MARCH

IN MRS. WILLIAMS' CLASS, STUDENTS WERE TASKED WITH FINDING THE FIVE-NUMBER SUMMARY TO CREATE A BOX-AND-WHISKER PLOT.

HAPPY SAINT PATRICK'S DAY

Absolutely, shout out to Diane for her dedication in always decorating the cafeteria for our students! Your efforts create a welcoming atmosphere. Thank you for making our school environment more enjoyable and memorable.

DID YOU KNOW?...

Although the setting of Dracula is Romanian Transylvania, the writer of the story was an Irishman: Bram Stoker. Stoker studied at Trinity College, Dublin, as did famous writers Oscar Wilde, Samuel Beckett and Jonathan Swift.

Andres book recommendation of the week:

Boy 21 by Matthew Quick

"How blessed are some people, whose lives have no fears, no dreads; to whom sleep is a blessing that comes nightly, and brings nothing but sweet dream."
